SECURITY POLICY

10. Wellnomics BV has implemented the following security measures to protect its product or service:

Wellnomics BV uses an authorization policy to determine who should have access to which data. Employees do not have access to more data on the basis of this system than is strictly necessary for their job.

Wellnomics BV has a data protection officer to take stock of risks related to the processing of personal data, to stimulate security awareness, to check provisions and to take measures to ensure compliance with the Information Security Policy.

Information Security incidents are reported to "Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens", documented and used for optimization of the information security policy.

Wellnomics BV has set up and documented a process for communication about Information Security Incidents.

With employees (both internal and external) confidentiality statements are agreed and information security agreements are made.

Minimum annual training for employees with a description of Data and System Security and Privacy for the various products.

Wellnomics BV has an Information Security Policy and updates this annually. Employees do not have access to more data on the basis of an authorization system than is strictly necessary for their job.

Incident management

A risk analysis is performed annually. If risks are identified, it describes which actions Wellnomics BV has taken in the context of these risks. It also describes what steps the organization has taken to prevent this. An Incident Management Process is present.

Physical security and continuity of resources

- Personal data is only processed in a closed, physically secure environment with protection against external threats.
- Personal data is only processed on equipment where measures have been taken to physically secure the equipment and to ensure the continuity of the service.
- Back-ups are made daily for the continuity of the service. These back ups are treated confidentially and stored in a closed environment.
- The locations where data are processed are periodically tested, maintained and periodically assessed for safety risks.

Wellnomics BV systems are continuously monitored for safety. In addition, the security policy of Wellnomics BV provides internal processes to identify and resolve vulnerabilities.

DATA LEAK PROTOCOL

11. In the unfortunate event that something does go wrong, Wellnomics BV will follow the following data breach protocol to ensure that clients are notified of incidents:

There is an 'infringement in connection with Personal Data' (hereafter: data breach) if there is a breach of the security that has as a result or possible consequence:

- destruction of Personal Data (eg by fire or erasing); or
- loss of Personal Data (eg USB or laptop that is lost); or
- modification of Personal Data (without this being the intention); or
- unauthorized provision of Personal Data (for example e-mail / files sent to incorrect addressees or unintended CCs); or
- unauthorized access to transmitted / stored / otherwise processed Personal Data (for example, by a hacker or a non-authorized staff member).

It does not matter whether there is a deliberate data leak (such as a hacker that unauthorized access to Personal Data) or that something goes wrong accidentally (for example by accidentally deleting data that should not be erased). It does matter if there is Personal Data. If there are no consequences for Personal Data, there is no data breach.

Wellnomics BV will give the client the following information:

- Description of the leak
- The date on which the leak occurred
- What is the (alleged) cause of the leak
- The date and time at which the leak became known to the Processor or to a third party or subcontractor engaged by it
- The number of people whose data has been leaked
- A description of the group of persons whose data have leaked including the type or types of personal data that has been leaked
- What are the intended and / or already taken measures to close the leak and to limit the consequences of this leak?
- Contact details for the follow-up of the report

PART 2: STANDARD CLAUSES FOR DATA PROCESSING

Version: January 2018

Along with the Data Pro Statement, these standard clauses constitute the data processing agreement. They also constitute an annex to the Agreement and to the appendices to this Agreement, e.g. any general terms and conditions which may apply.

ARTICLE 1. DEFINITIONS

The following terms have the following meanings ascribed to them in the present Standard Clauses for Data Processing , in the Data Pro Statement and in the Agreement:

- 1.1 Dutch Data Protection Authority (AP): the regulatory agency outlined in Section 4.21 of the GDPR.
- 1.2 GDPR: the General Data Protection Regulation.
- 1.3 Data Processor: the party which, in its capacity as an ICT supplier, processes Personal Data on behalf of its Client as part of the performance of the Agreement.
- 1.4 Data Pro Statement: a statement issued by the Data Processor in which it provides information on the intended use of its product or service, any security measures which have been implemented, sub-processors, data breach, certification and dealing with the rights of Data Subjects, among other things.
- 1.5 Data Subject: a natural person who can be identified, directly or indirectly.
- 1.6 Client: the party on whose behalf the Data Processor processes Personal Data. The Client may be either the controller (the party who determines the purpose and means of the processing) or another data processor.
- 1.7 Agreement: the agreement concluded between the Client and the Data Processor, on whose basis the ICT supplier provides services and/or products to the Client, the data processing agreement being part of this agreement.
- 1.8 Personal Data any and all information regarding a natural person who has been or can be identified, as outlined in Article 4.1 of the GDPR, processed by the Data Processor to meet its requirements under the Agreement.
- 1.9 Data Processing Agreement: the present Standard Clauses for Data Processing , which, along with the Data Processor's Data Pro Statement (or similar such information), constitute the data processing agreement within the meaning of Article 28.3 of the GDPR.

ARTICLE 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 2.1 The present Standard Clauses for Data Processing apply to all Personal Data processing operations carried out by the Data Processor in providing its products and services, as well as to all Agreements and offers. The applicability of the Client's data processing agreements is expressly rejected.

- 2.2 The Data Pro Statement, and particularly the security measures outlined in it, may be adapted from time to time to changing circumstances by the Data Processor. The Data Processor will notify the Client in the event of significant revisions. If the Client cannot reasonably agree to the revisions, the Client will be entitled to terminate the data processing agreement in writing, stating its reasons for doing so, within thirty days of having been served notice of the revisions.
- 2.3 The Data Processor will process the Personal Data on behalf and on behalf of the Client, in accordance with the written instructions provided by the Client and accepted by the Data Processor.
- 2.4 The Client or its customer will serve as the controller within the meaning of the GDPR, will have control over the processing of the Personal Data and will determine the purpose and means of processing the Personal Data.
- 2.5 The Data Processor will serve as the processor within the meaning of the GDPR and will therefore not have control over the purpose and means of processing the Personal Data, and will not make any decisions on the use of the Personal Data and other such matters.
- 2.6 The Data Processor will give effect to the GDPR as laid down in the present Standard Clauses for Data Processing, the Data Pro Statement and the Agreement. It is up to the Client to judge, on the basis of this information, whether the Data Processor is providing sufficient guarantees with regard to the implementation of appropriate technical and organisational measures so as to ensure that the processing operations meet the requirements of the GDPR and that Data Subjects' rights are sufficiently protected.
- 2.7 The Client will guarantee to the Data Processor that it acts in accordance with the GDPR, that it provides a high level of protection for its systems and infrastructure at all time, that the nature, use and/or processing of the Personal Data are not unlawful and that they do not violate any third party's rights.
- 2.8 Administrative fines imposed on the Client by the Dutch Data Protection Authority will not be able to be recouped from the Data Processor, except in the event of wilful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of the Data Processor's management team.

ARTICLE 3. SECURITY

- 3.1 The Data Processor will implement the technical and organisational security measures outlined in its Data Pro Statement. In implementing the technical and organisational security measures, the Data Processor will take into account the state of the art and the costs of implementation, as well as the nature, scope, context and purposes of the processing operations and the intended use of its products and services, the risks inherent in processing the data and risks of various degrees of likelihood and severity to the rights and freedoms of Data Subjects that are to be expected considering the nature of the intended use of the Data Processor's products and services.
- 3.2 Unless explicitly stated otherwise in the Data Pro Statement, the product or service provided by the Data Processor will not be equipped to process special categories of personal data or data relating to criminal convictions and offences.

- 3.3 The Data Processor seeks to ensure that the security measures it will implement are appropriate for the manner in which the Data Processor intends to use the product or service.
- 3.4 In the Client's opinion, said security measures provide a level of security that is tailored to the risks inherent in the processing of the Personal Data used or provided by the Client, taking into account the factors referred to in Article 3.1.
- 3.5 The Data Processor will be entitled to adjust the security measures it has implemented if it feels that such is necessary for a continued provision of an appropriate level of security. The Data Processor will record any significant adjustments it chooses to make, e.g. in a revised Data Pro Statement, and will notify the Client of said adjustments where relevant.
- 3.6 The Client may request the Data Processor to implement further security measures. The Data Processor will not be obliged to honour such requests to adjust its security measures. If the Data Processor makes any adjustments to its security measures at the Client's request, the Data Processor will be allowed to invoice the Client for the costs associated with said adjustments. The Data Processor will not be required to actually implement these security measures until both Parties have agreed in writing and signed off on the security measures requested by the Client.

ARTICLE 4. DATA BREACHES

- 4.1 The Data Processor does not guarantee that its security measures will be effective under all conditions. If the Data Processor discovers a data breach within the meaning of Article 4.12 of the GDPR, it will notify the Client without undue delay. The "Data Breach Protocol" section of the Data Pro Statement outlines the way in which the Data Processor will notify the Client of data breaches.
- 4.2 It is up to the Controller (the Client or its customer) to assess whether the data breach of which the Data Processor has notified the Controller must be reported to the Dutch Data Protection Authority or to the Data Subject concerned. The Controller (the Client or its customer) will at all times remain responsible for reporting data breaches which must be reported to the Dutch Data Protection Authority and/or Data Subjects pursuant to Articles 33 and 34 of the GDPR. The Data Processor is not obliged to report data breaches to the Dutch Data Protection Authority and/or to the Data Subject.
- 4.3 Where necessary, the Data Processor will provide more information on the data breach and will help the Client meet its breach notification requirements within the meaning of Articles 33 and 34 of the GDPR by providing all the necessary information.
- 4.4 If the Data Processor incurs any reasonable costs in doing so, it will be allowed to invoice the Client for these, at the rates applicable at the time.

ARTICLE 5. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 5.1 The Data Processor will ensure that the persons processing Personal Data under its responsibility are subject to a duty of confidentiality.
- 5.2 The Data Processor will be entitled to furnish third parties with Personal Data if and insofar as such is necessary due to a court order, statutory provision or legal order to do so issued by a government agency.
- 5.3 Any and all access and/or identification codes, certificates, information regarding access and/or password policies provided by the Data Processor to the Client, and any and all information provided by the Data Processor to the Client which gives effect to the technical and organisational security measures included in the Data Pro Statement are confidential and will be treated as such by the Client and will only be disclosed to authorised employees of the Client. The Client will ensure that its employees comply with the requirements outlined in this article.

ARTICLE 6. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 6.1 This data processing agreement constitutes part of the Agreement, and any new or subsequent agreement arising from it and will enter into force at the time of the conclusion of the Agreement and will remain effective until terminated.
- 6.2 This data processing agreement will end by operation of law when the Agreement or any new or subsequent agreement between the parties is terminated.
- 6.3 If the data processing agreement is terminated, the Data Processor will delete all Personal Data it currently stores and which it has obtained from the Client within the timeframe laid down in the Data Pro Statement, in such a way that the Personal Data will no longer be able to be used and will have been rendered inaccessible. Alternatively, if such has been agreed, the Data Processor will return the Personal Data to the Client in a machine-readable format.
- 6.4 If the Data Processor incurs any costs associated with the provisions of Article 6.3, it will be entitled to invoice the Client for said costs. Further arrangements relating to this subject can be laid down in the Data Pro Statement.
- 6.5 The provisions of Article 6.3 do not apply if the Data Processor is prevented from removing or returning the Personal Data in full or in part by a statutory provision. In such cases, the Data Processor will only continue to process the Personal Data insofar as such is necessary by virtue of its statutory obligations. Furthermore, the provisions of Article 6.3 will not apply if the Data Processor is the Controller of the Personal Data within the meaning of the GDPR.

ARTICLE 7. THE RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS, DATA PROTECTION IMPACT ASSESSMENTS (DPIA) AND AUDITING RIGHTS

- 7.1 Where possible, the Data Processor will cooperate with reasonable requests made by the Client relating to Data Subjects claiming alleged rights from the Client. If the Data

Processor is directly approached by a Data Subject, it will refer the Data Subject to the Client where possible.

- 7.2 If the Client is required to carry out a Data Protection Impact Assessment or a subsequent consultation within the meaning of Articles 35 and 36 of the GDPR, the Data Processor will cooperate with such, following a reasonable request to do so.
- 7.3 The Data Processor will be able to demonstrate its compliance with its requirements under the data processing agreement by means of a valid Data Processing Certificate or an equivalent certificate or audit report (third-party memorandum) issued by an independent expert.
- 7.4 In addition, at the Client's request, the Data Processor will provide all other information that is reasonably required to demonstrate compliance with the arrangements made in this data processing agreement. If, in spite of the foregoing, the Client has grounds to believe that the Personal Data are not processed in accordance with the data processing agreement, the Client will be entitled to have an audit performed (at its own expense) not more than once every year by an independent, fully certified, external expert who has demonstrable experience with the type of data processing operations carried out under the Agreement. The audit will be limited to verifying that the Data Processor is complying with the arrangements made regarding the processing of the Personal Data as laid down in the present data processing agreement. The expert will be subject to a duty of confidentiality with regard to his/her findings and will only notify the Client of matters which cause the Data Processor to fail to comply with its obligations under the data processing agreement. The expert will furnish the Data Processor with a copy of his/her report. The Data Processor will be entitled to reject an audit or instruction issued by the expert if it feels that the audit or instruction is inconsistent with the GDPR or any other law, or that it constitutes an unacceptable breach of the security measures it has implemented.
- 7.5 The parties will consult each other on the findings of the report at their earliest convenience. The parties will implement the measures for improvement suggested in the report insofar as they can be reasonably expected to do so. The Data Processor will implement the proposed measures for improvement insofar as it feels these are appropriate, taking into account the processing risks associated with its product or service, the state of the art, the costs of implementation, the market in which it operates, and the intended use of the product or service.
- 7.6 The Data Processor will be entitled to invoice the Client for any costs it incurs in implementing the measures referred to in this article.

ARTICLE 8. SUB-PROCESSORS

- 8.1. The Data Processor has outlined in the Data Pro Statement whether the Data Processor uses any third parties (sub-processors) to help it process the Personal Data, and if so, which third parties.
- 8.2. The Client authorises the Data Processor to hire other sub-processors to meet its obligations under the Agreement.

- 8.3. The Data Processor will notify the Client if there is a change with regard to the third parties hired by the Data Processor, e.g. through a revised Data Pro Statement. The Client will be entitled to object to the aforementioned change implemented by the Data Processor. The Data Processor will ensure that any third parties it hires will commit to ensuring the same level of Personal Data protection as the security level the Data Processor is bound to provide to the Client pursuant to the Data Pro Statement.

ARTICLE 9. OTHER PROVISIONS

These Standard Clauses for Data Processing, along with the Data Pro Statement, constitute an integral part of the Agreement. Therefore, any and all rights and requirements arising from the Agreement, including any general terms and conditions and/or limitations of liability which may apply, will also apply to the data processing agreement.
